The gorgeous stage settings, electrical effects and beautiful costumes are only a small part of the attractiveness of The Soul Kiss. There are a score of swingy, eatchy songs, a continued fire of fun, and many other novetites that made the entertxinment one of the biggest successes of last season.

The Soul Kiss is the joint work of Harry B. Smith and Maurice Levi, authors of The Follies of 1908 and 1909. One of the novelties of the piece is the Corps de Ballet of ten, who have been imported from the Empire theater, London, the home of the English ballets. They all execute a beautiful ets. They all execute a beautiful number entitled The Money Ballet. A company of sixty clever men and women will be seen in this city with the original production, staged under the direction of JuHan Mitchell.

THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville's biggest laughing act is the way the Horseshoe Trio are billed and after you have seen it you will say it is a scream. This clever trio have put together a one-act farce that is for laughing purposes only, foolish in spots, and the plot is not as deep as some of lisen's dramss, but if you have a laugh in you they will bring it out. O'Rourke and O'Rourke, the Hibernian dancers, will step a few and then some, and also introduce some wit of the Celtic order. Victor Shaker, the wonderful boy venturiloquist, is exwonderful boy ventriloquist, is ex-tionally clever and classes high with older men in his line. Richards & Steele present an equilibristic wire act in which skill and comedy are well behinced. Lillian Morelle will sing If Today Were Yesterday, and tomorrow rou will be humming the chorus.

Picture? Well now a classy lot are booked for Monday and Tuesday that promise to eclipse all former efforts of the manufacturers.

BREED THEATER. . The Thread of Destiny, Thrilling Biograph Feature.

In the beautiful Biograph picture-drama that is the feature of the Breed theater for the first half of the week the glories of southern California are well represented, for the whole picture was taken in and around the San well represented, for the whole sicture was taken in and around the San Gahriel missions and is one of the handsomest pictures of the season. The wonderful old missions form a majority of the backgrounds of the many spirited scenes and will prove a great and interesting novelty to easterners. In the course of the pretty story a young Spanish orphan girl has been rescued from the hands of a Mexican rowdy by a handsome Mexican fellow. Later her champion is entired into a game of cards which is only a subterfuge to start a quarrel; he is accused of cheating by the Mexican whom he saved the girl from and they start to lynch him. After a terrible fight he manages to escape and they start to be the home of the girl hat he saves, and she cleverly hides him under a pile of rubbish, and the pursuing willairs go on their way. Later the rowdy is captured and bound hand and foot and made a witness of the wedding of his two objects of asof the or the rowdy is captured and bound of end foot and made a witness of gastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

This is but one of the many attractive pictures to be seen at the Breed this week, while Mr. Ray will be heard in the newest and best in the illustrated song line.

I have used the Cuticura Remedies, also, for a breaking out on my hands and was benefited a great deal. I haven't had any more trouble with the scalp disease. Miss Jessie F. Buchanan, R. F.
